If the customers fail to observe these Rules and Regulations, the Company has the option to discontinue service after due notice of such failure.
- b. In the event of a conflict between these General Rules and Regulations and any conditions contained in the Local Exchange Tariffs, the rates and conditions contained in the specific tariff section shall prevail.
- c. This Tariff cancels and supersedes all other Tariffs of the Company issued and effective prior to the effective dates shown on individual sheets of this tariff.

B. OBLIGATION AND LIABILITY OF TELEPHONE COMPANY

2. Allowance for Failure of Service

- a. The Company does not guarantee uninterrupted working of its lines or equipment. In case service is interrupted other than by the negligence or willful act of the customer, an adjustment will be made in the amount of the charges for that portion of the service rendered inoperable. No other liability shall in any case attach to the Company.

3. Adjustment of Charges

- a. In the event of an adjustment of charges for overbilling by the Company, a refund or credit will be made of the full amount of excess charges for a period not to exceed five years. The Company may require an applicant to pay in advance an amount equal to one month's exchange rate. If a deposit is required by the Company, applicable non-recurring charges and service charges (if any) may be required in advance. The terms and conditions specified for such contracts are subject to these General Rules and Regulations and the local Exchange Tariff for the exchange from which service is to be furnished. Any change in rates, rules or regulations shall act as a modification of the contract to that extent, without further notice.
 - b. Minimum contract periods and termination of service are covered elsewhere in Part II of this tariff.

2. Telephone Numbers
 - a. The customer has no proprietary right in the telephone number or any right to continuance of service from any specific central office, and the Company may assign or change the telephone number, the central office designation, or both, as is necessary in the conduct of its business or subject to any porting requirements. F. ESTABLISHMENT AND MAINTENANCE OF CREDIT (Continued)

2. Amount of Deposits

The amount of deposit required shall not be more than the maximum charge for two months local exchange service or as may reasonably be required by the Company in cases involving service for short periods or special occasions. 3. Deposits and Collection Practices

- a. The fact that a deposit has been made in no way relieves the applicant or customer from complying with the Company's regulations as to advance payments and the prompt payment of bills; nor constitutes a waiver or modification of the regular practices of the Company providing for the discontinuance of service for non-payment of sums due the Company for services rendered. The Company may discontinue service to any customer failing to pay current bills regardless of the fact that such customer has made a deposit with the Company to secure payment of such bills, or has furnished the Company with a guarantee in writing for such bills.
